

BATS WAKE-UP IN GAME 2 VICTORY OVER PHILLIES

After being shut-out in Game 1 of the 2008 season, the Comets quickly rebounded with a 15-4 victory over the Montco Phillies (1-1). The Comets (1-1) scored eight runs in the first inning, while rookie Billy Riggieri threw six efficient innings to lead the club to its first victory.

Dana Erb took the loss for the Comets in Game 1, pitching 4.1 innings and only allowing 4 hits. The offense was unable to sustain a rally, despite reaching base with 9 hits during the contest.

The Comets will stay at Latshaw-McCarthy Field again this week to battle the defending 3-time GPMABL Champion Havertown Eagles. Game 1 will begin at 10:00 AM.
